So you want to be an Architect

Write what you think the job entails.

Designing buildings using sketches, 3D design, models, etc.

Find the Job description.

An architect plans, designs, and oversees the construction of buildings and other structures to ensure they are safe, functional, and visually appealing

List some skills required?

Tech skills

Design skills

Artistic

Problem solving

What is the yearly average salary nationally?

96,000

What is the yearly average salary in Connecticut?

112,000 – 122,000

What is the starting average salary?

64,000

What does the projected job market look like?

Expected to grow 3.9 – 4% from 2024 – 2034 which is the baseline average

How many years of school?

5-7 years

What exams or professional licenses will you need?

Architect registration exam and the architect experience program.

What is the best local college and how much will it cost?

What is the best college in the country and how much will it cost?

University of Hartford – 52,000 anually with expenses commuting from home

Yale – 67,000 anually with expenses commuting from home

List the math requirements

College algebra, trig, calc 1